Aims and Scope

The Journal of Stratigraphy and Sedimentology Researches of the University of Isfahan, welcomes to the following research topics:

- Biostratigraphy
- Sequence stratigraphy
- Microfacies
- Paleoecology
- Quaternary sediment engineering
- Sedimentology and environmental pollution
- Sedimentology and deposits
- Hydrogeology in relation to sedimentology and sedimentary geochemistry

Editorial Board

Naser Arzani	University of Payam Noor, Isfahan, Iran

Please consider the followings before submitting the article:

1. The article should not be published earlier or submitted to other publisher simultaneously.
2. The formal language of the journal is Persian. However, English articles would be in consideration.
3. The text should reflect original research and reflects author(s) investigations.
4. Article provided by MSc. and PhD. students in cooperation with their supervisor and advisor, should be submitted by supervisor. Otherwise, it will not open to the editorial board
5. The article should arrange as follows:

First page:

- Full title of the article in Persian and in English, Name of the author(s) in Farsi and in English (the name of the corresponding author will be marked with an asterisk).
- Academic status and name of institution or place of employment of the author(s) in Persian and English.
- Full address of the author responsible for correspondence, including postal address, telephone number, fax number and E-mail address in Persian and in English. Please avoid using these specifications in other pages of the paper.
- If the financial expenses of the research or the preparation of the article are provided by an institution, or if the article is derived from a research project with the financial support of other institutions and organizations, it is necessary to obtain permission to print the results of the project or research from the appropriate institution and submit it to the journal office when submitting the article, and if requested by the institution, the name of that institution should be included in the footer of the first page.

Second page:

- Full title of the article in Persian.
- Abstract in Persian (maximum of 300 words),
- Key words (maximum of five words),

Third page (begin the whole body of the paper):

- Introduction, Methods, Main body, Discussion, Conclusion and List of references, preferably "in English
- References in the text: author(s) name and year of publication in parentheses (Wilson 1975; Flugel 2010; James and Wynd 1965).
- If you use more than one paper from author(s) published in the same year, add a, b, .after the year of that references.
- Use an English equivalent marked independently by number for each page footnotes.
- References list: Arrange references as; author's last name, first letter of the name, year of publication, title, journal name completely, volume number , pages (start and end). In the book, after the author's surname and first letter of the name and year of the book, the full name of the publisher, volume number, place of publication, and pages must be explained.

The method of referencing sources is based on the AAPG journal format of the American Association of Petroleum Geologists.
